

CHAPTER II

COUNCIL - CITY GOVERNMENT

Section 200 - Council Rules and Procedures

200.01. Regular and special meetings. Regular meetings of the council are held on the 1st and 3rd Tuesday of each month in the council chambers of the city hall at 7:00 p.m. Meetings may be adjourned from time to time to a specified date or subject to the call of the mayor or any three members of the council upon at least twelve hours' notice to each member of the council and subject to the provisions of law. Regular and special meetings of the council are held in compliance with section 3.01 of the charter. Meetings of the council are open to the public.

200.03. Quorum. A majority of council members elected constitutes a quorum, but a smaller number may adjourn from time to time.

200.05. Presiding officer and secretary. The mayor presides at meetings of the council. The council must choose from its members a Mayor pro tem in accordance with section 2.08 of the charter. The secretary of the council is appointed by the council and performs those duties stated in section 3.02 of the charter.

200.07. First meeting. The first meeting of the council following a regular municipal election is held on the first business day of January. At that meeting the council must designate an official newspaper and depositories for official funds. The council may appoint committees as it deems necessary.

200.09. Council rules; presiding officer. The presiding officer preserves order and decorum, decides questions of order, and conducts meetings in accordance with these rules. The council is governed in its procedure by the provisions of chapters 2 and 3 of the charter, and council resolution except where otherwise provided by the charter, law, or by this chapter. The council may make and change its own rules from time to time by resolution duly adopted and such changes supersede any contrary provisions of Sturgis Standard Code of Parliamentary Procedure. The presiding officer may speak on any question being considered and has the rights, privileges, and duties of any other member of the council.

200.11. Motions reduced to writing. A motion must be reduced to writing at the request of member present. Ordinances and resolutions must be presented in writing and read in full before a vote is taken thereon unless the reading is dispensed with by unanimous consent.

200.13. Signing and publishing of ordinances. Ordinances must be signed in accordance with section 3.08 of the charter, attested by the clerk, published after its passage by the council, and recorded by the clerk in a properly indexed book kept for that purpose.

200.15. Order of business. The order of business for council meetings is established by the council's by-laws and rules of procedure.

[Editorial Note: There follows the rules and procedures governing city council meetings. These rules are inserted for informational purposes only and are not part of this ordinance code.]

Section 205 - Salaries of Elected Officials

205.01. Council salaries. Subdivision 1. Mayor. The salary of the mayor is $10,354 per annum effective January 1, 2016 and $10,561 per annum effective January 1, 2018. (Amended, Ord. Nos. 94-06; 96-6; 98-4; 00-02; 02-03; 04-03; 14-03; 16-4)

205.03. Councilmembers. The salary of each member of the council is $8,259 per annum effective January 1, 2016 and $8,424 per annum effective January 1, 2018. (Amended, Ord. Nos. 94-06; 96-6; 98-4; 00-02; 02-03; 04-03; 14-03; 16-4)

205.05. Monthly payments. The salary of the mayor and councilmembers is payable once monthly.

205.07. Council salary committee. A committee composed of the chairpersons of the charter commission, planning commission, parks and recreation commission, and human rights commission, must convene no later than the first full week of June in years of a municipal election in which one or more members of the city council are elected, for the purpose of reviewing the salaries of the mayor and council. At their first meeting, the committee must name one of its members as chairperson. Members of the council may not serve on the committee. If the chairperson of a commission is ineligible or unwilling to serve on the committee, the commission may designate another member of the commission to serve on the committee. A majority of the members is necessary to conduct business. The committee must recommend no later than August 1 of the same year to the council that the salaries of the mayor and councilmembers either remain the same or be changed to some specified amount in the manner prescribed by law. (Amended, Ord. No. 06-01)

205.09. Workers' compensation. Pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, chapter 176, the elected officials of the city, the Robbinsdale Economic Development Authority (REDA), and those municipal officers appointed for a regular term of office are included in the coverage of the Minnesota Workers' Compensation Act. (Amended, Ord. No. 91-15, Sec. 1)
