

Multi-Cultural Advisory Committee

The Multicultural Advisory Committee (MAC) is a core component of the Joint Community Police Partnership (JCPP). The MAC is an engaged group of volunteers that will provide insight to the Robbinsdale Police Department on how to better serve, communicate with, and understand the many cultures that reside in, work in, or visit the Robbinsdale community. The MAC meets monthly with Police personnel to discuss topics that are important to their communities, build mutual trust, and ensure two-way communication.

MAC members will represent the diverse cultural, professional, educational etc., backgrounds in Robbinsdale. We ask members to tap into their various skillsets and networks as part of their work in MAC; engage with neighbors, coworkers, students, clients or anyone else to learn how MAC can make progress on police community relations.

If you are interested in being involved in events, outreach activities, problem solving, and building partnerships between the multicultural communities and the police, then WE WANT YOU!!!

We are recruiting members who:

- Live, work, or worship in the City of Robbinsdale.
- Embrace the diversity of the Robbinsdale community.
- Are willing and eager to participate in challenging and meaningful conversations.
- Can act as a bridge between the community and police department.
- Will work collaboratively to enhance relationships between police and the community, specifically with immigrants and people of color in Robbinsdale.
